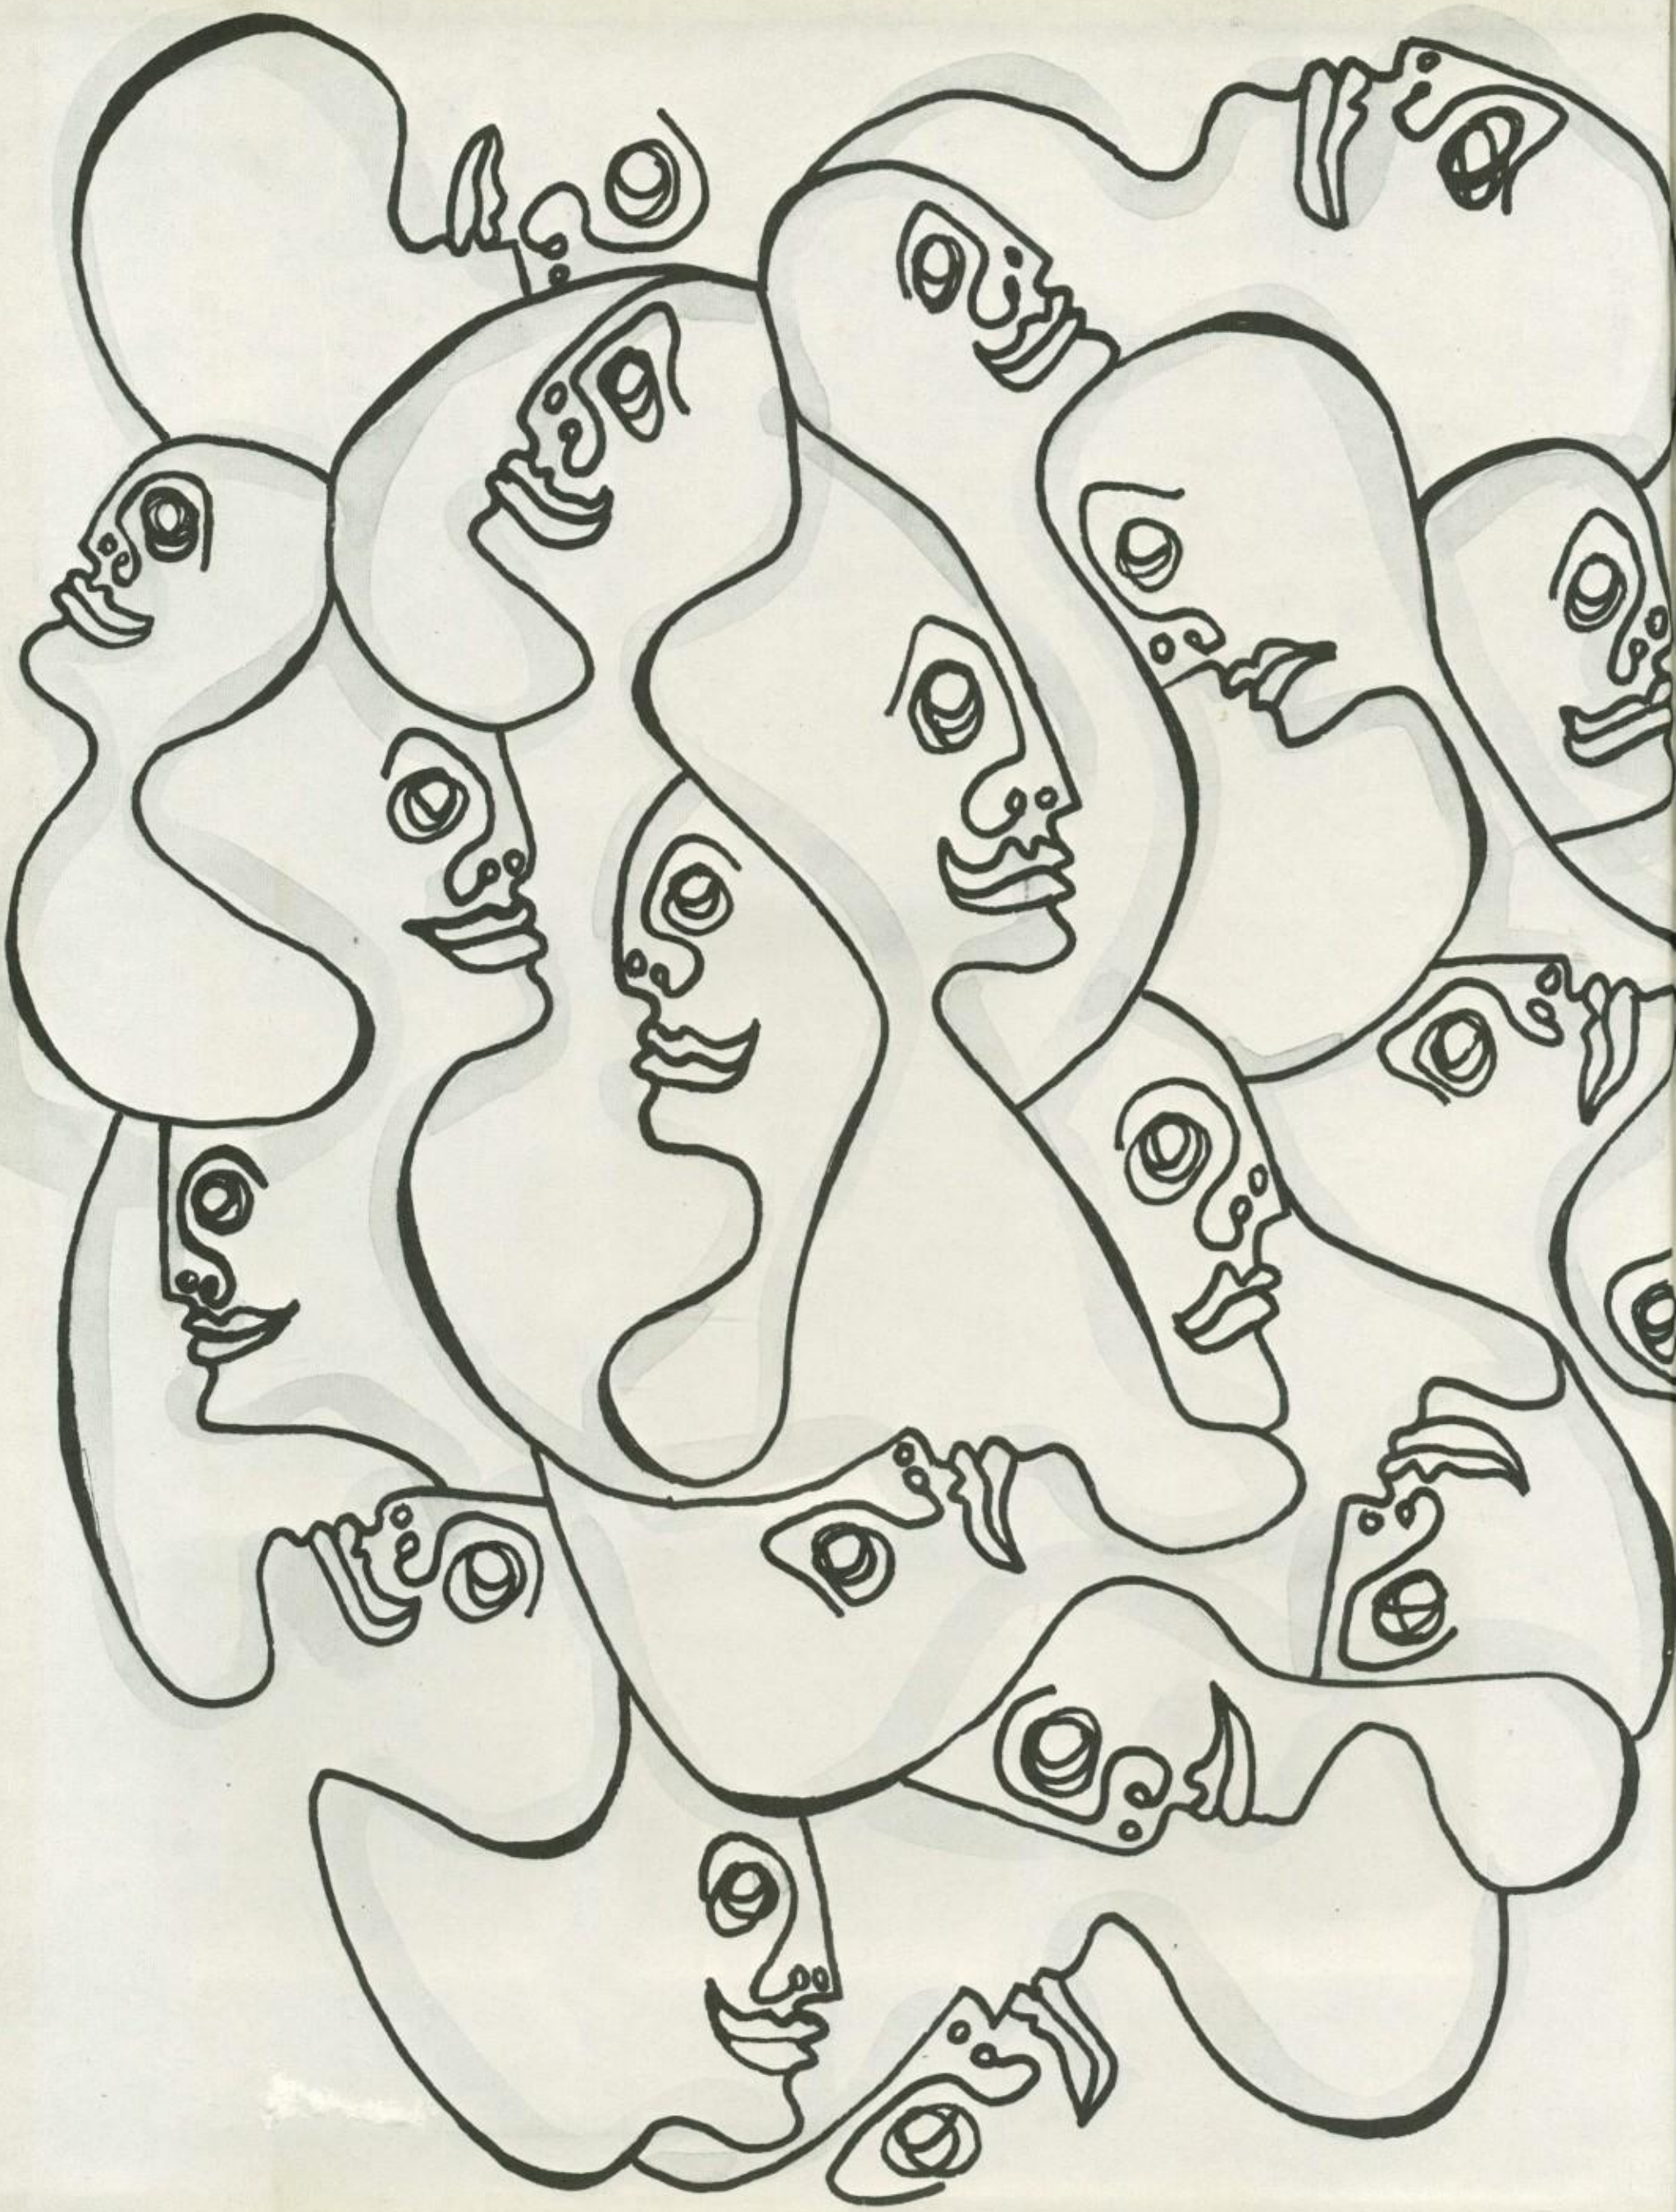
ANNE MARIE O'HAR



Dear Anne"
I wish you all the luck in the world and may all your dreams for the future become true.
I will always aill
remember you.
Love

Dear Anne Marie,

May you grow in the greatest virtue which is charity. You're really a great kid.

My wish for you is Peace!

Luv,
Vera

DEDICATION

It is already written that this man is one to remember.

Let the sunrise shine on all the intervals of your life
look back at yesterday anticipate tomorrow and smile about today . . .

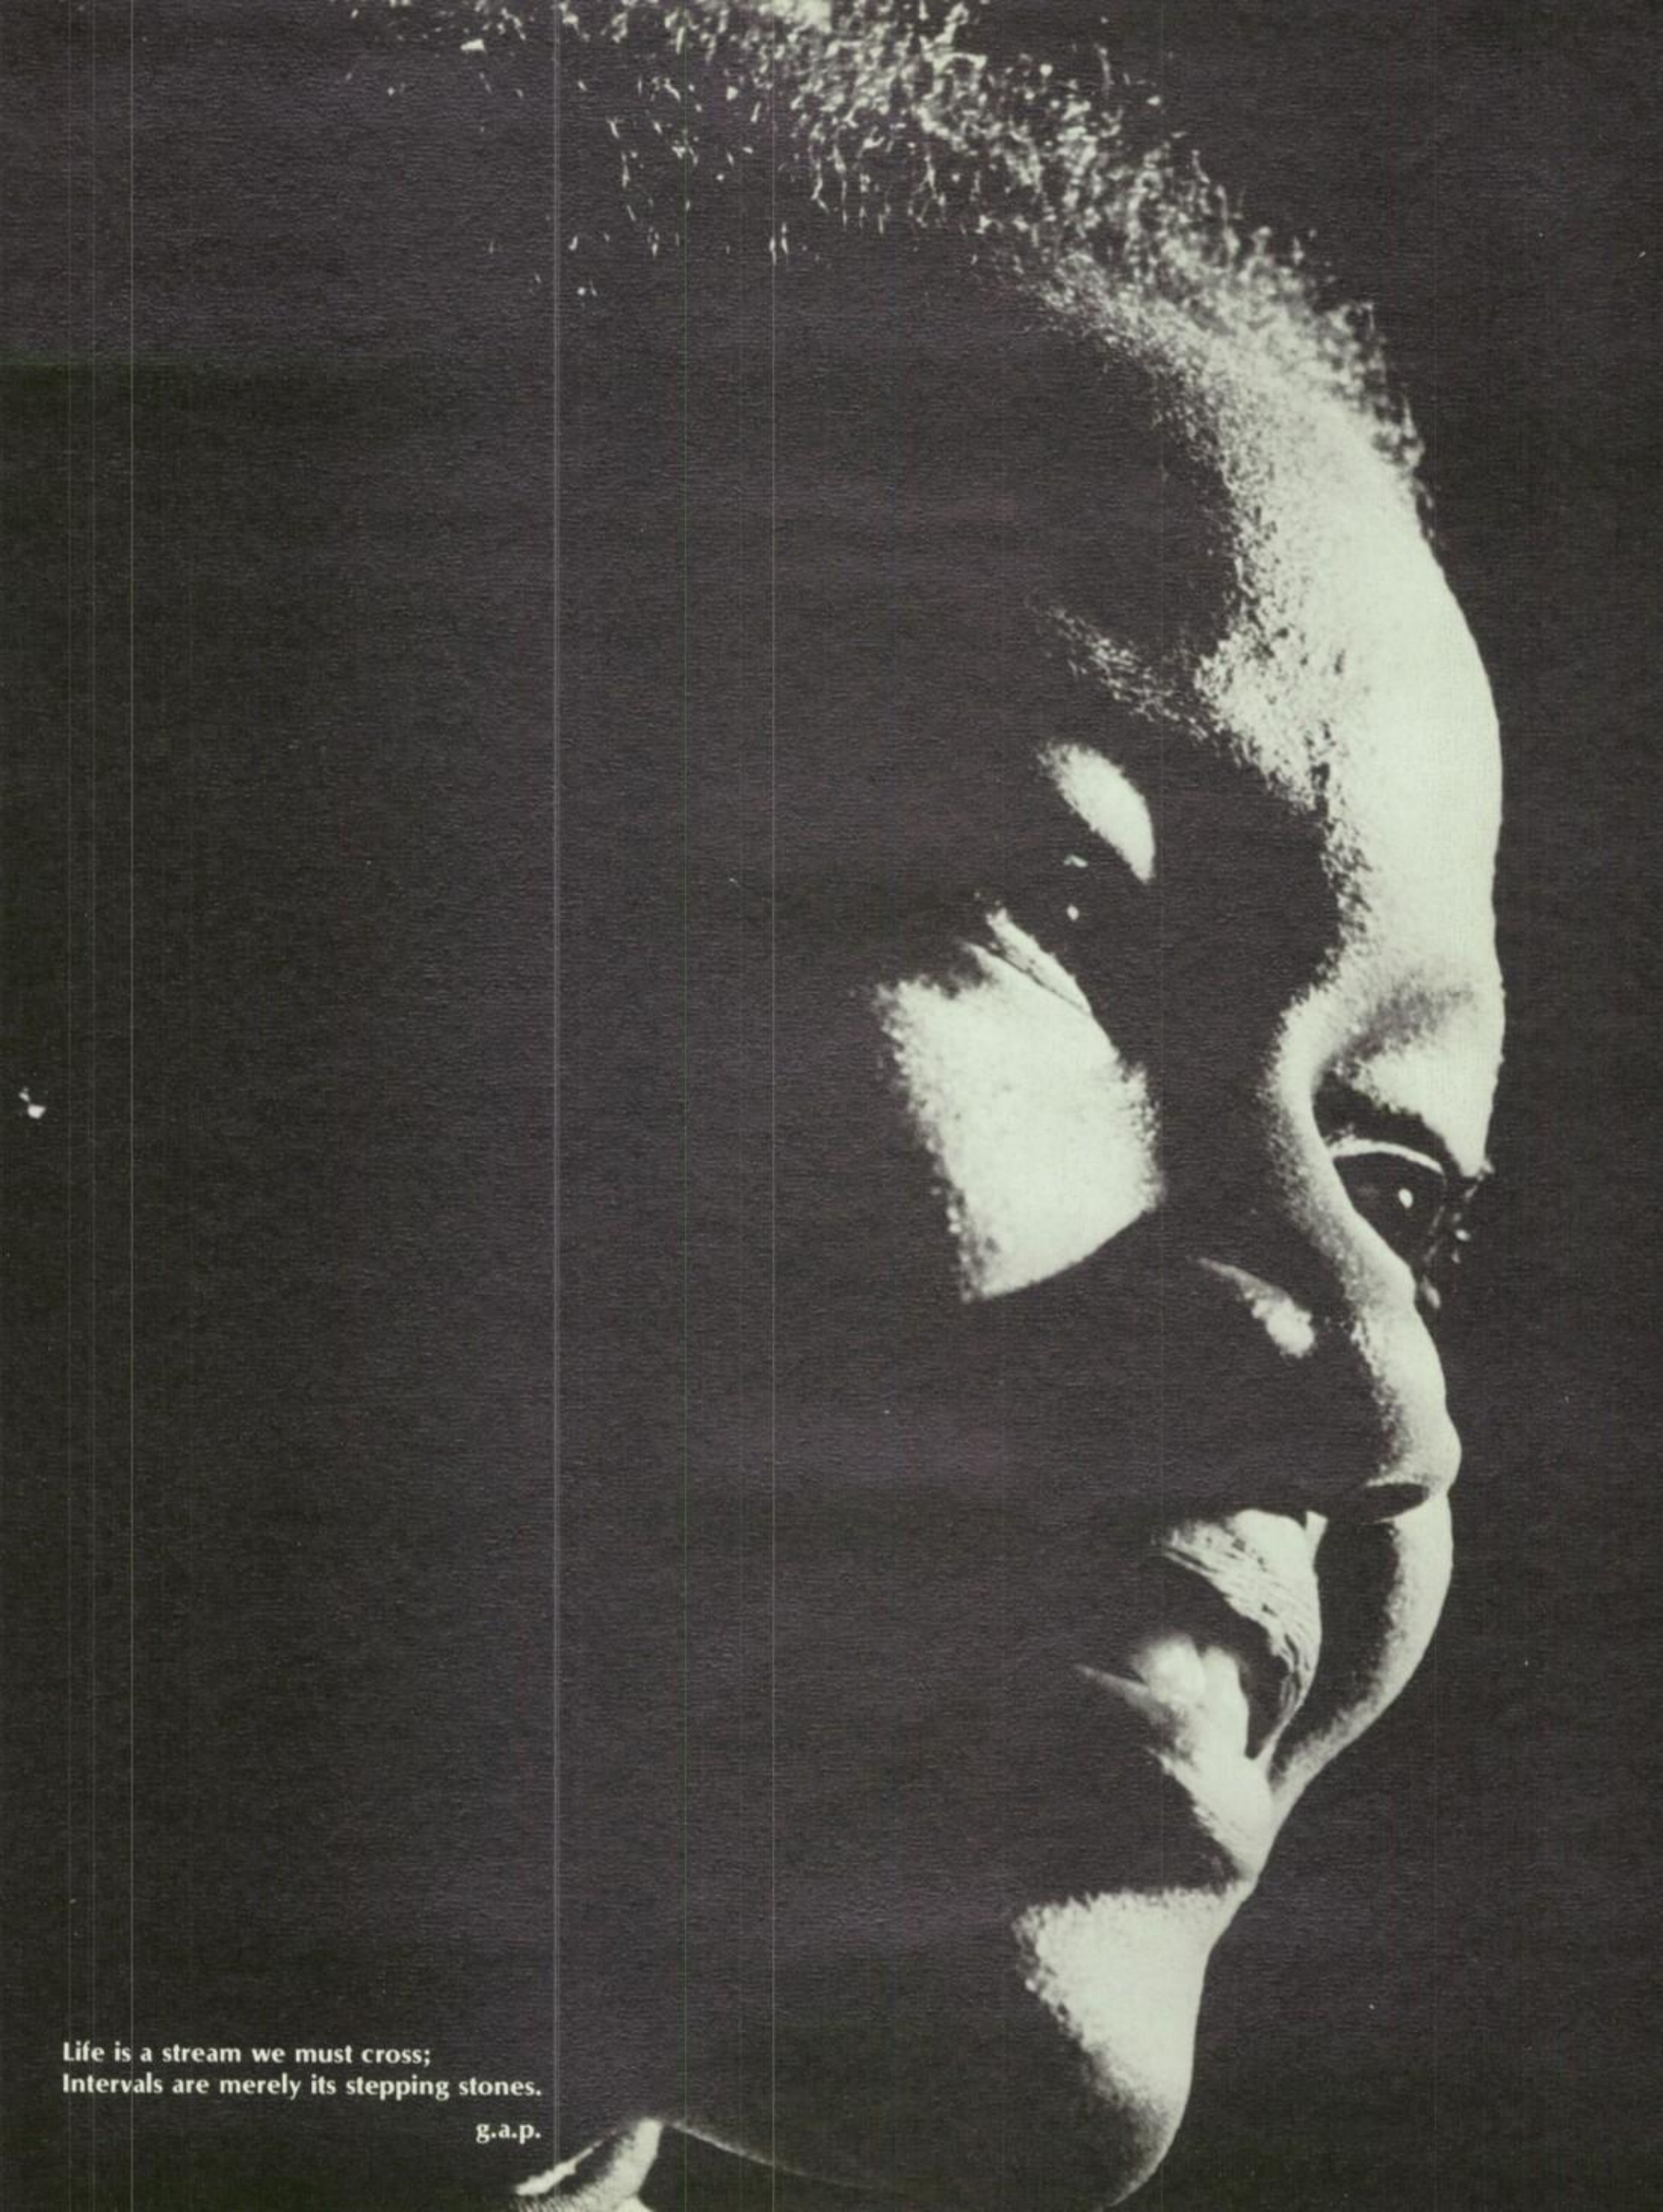
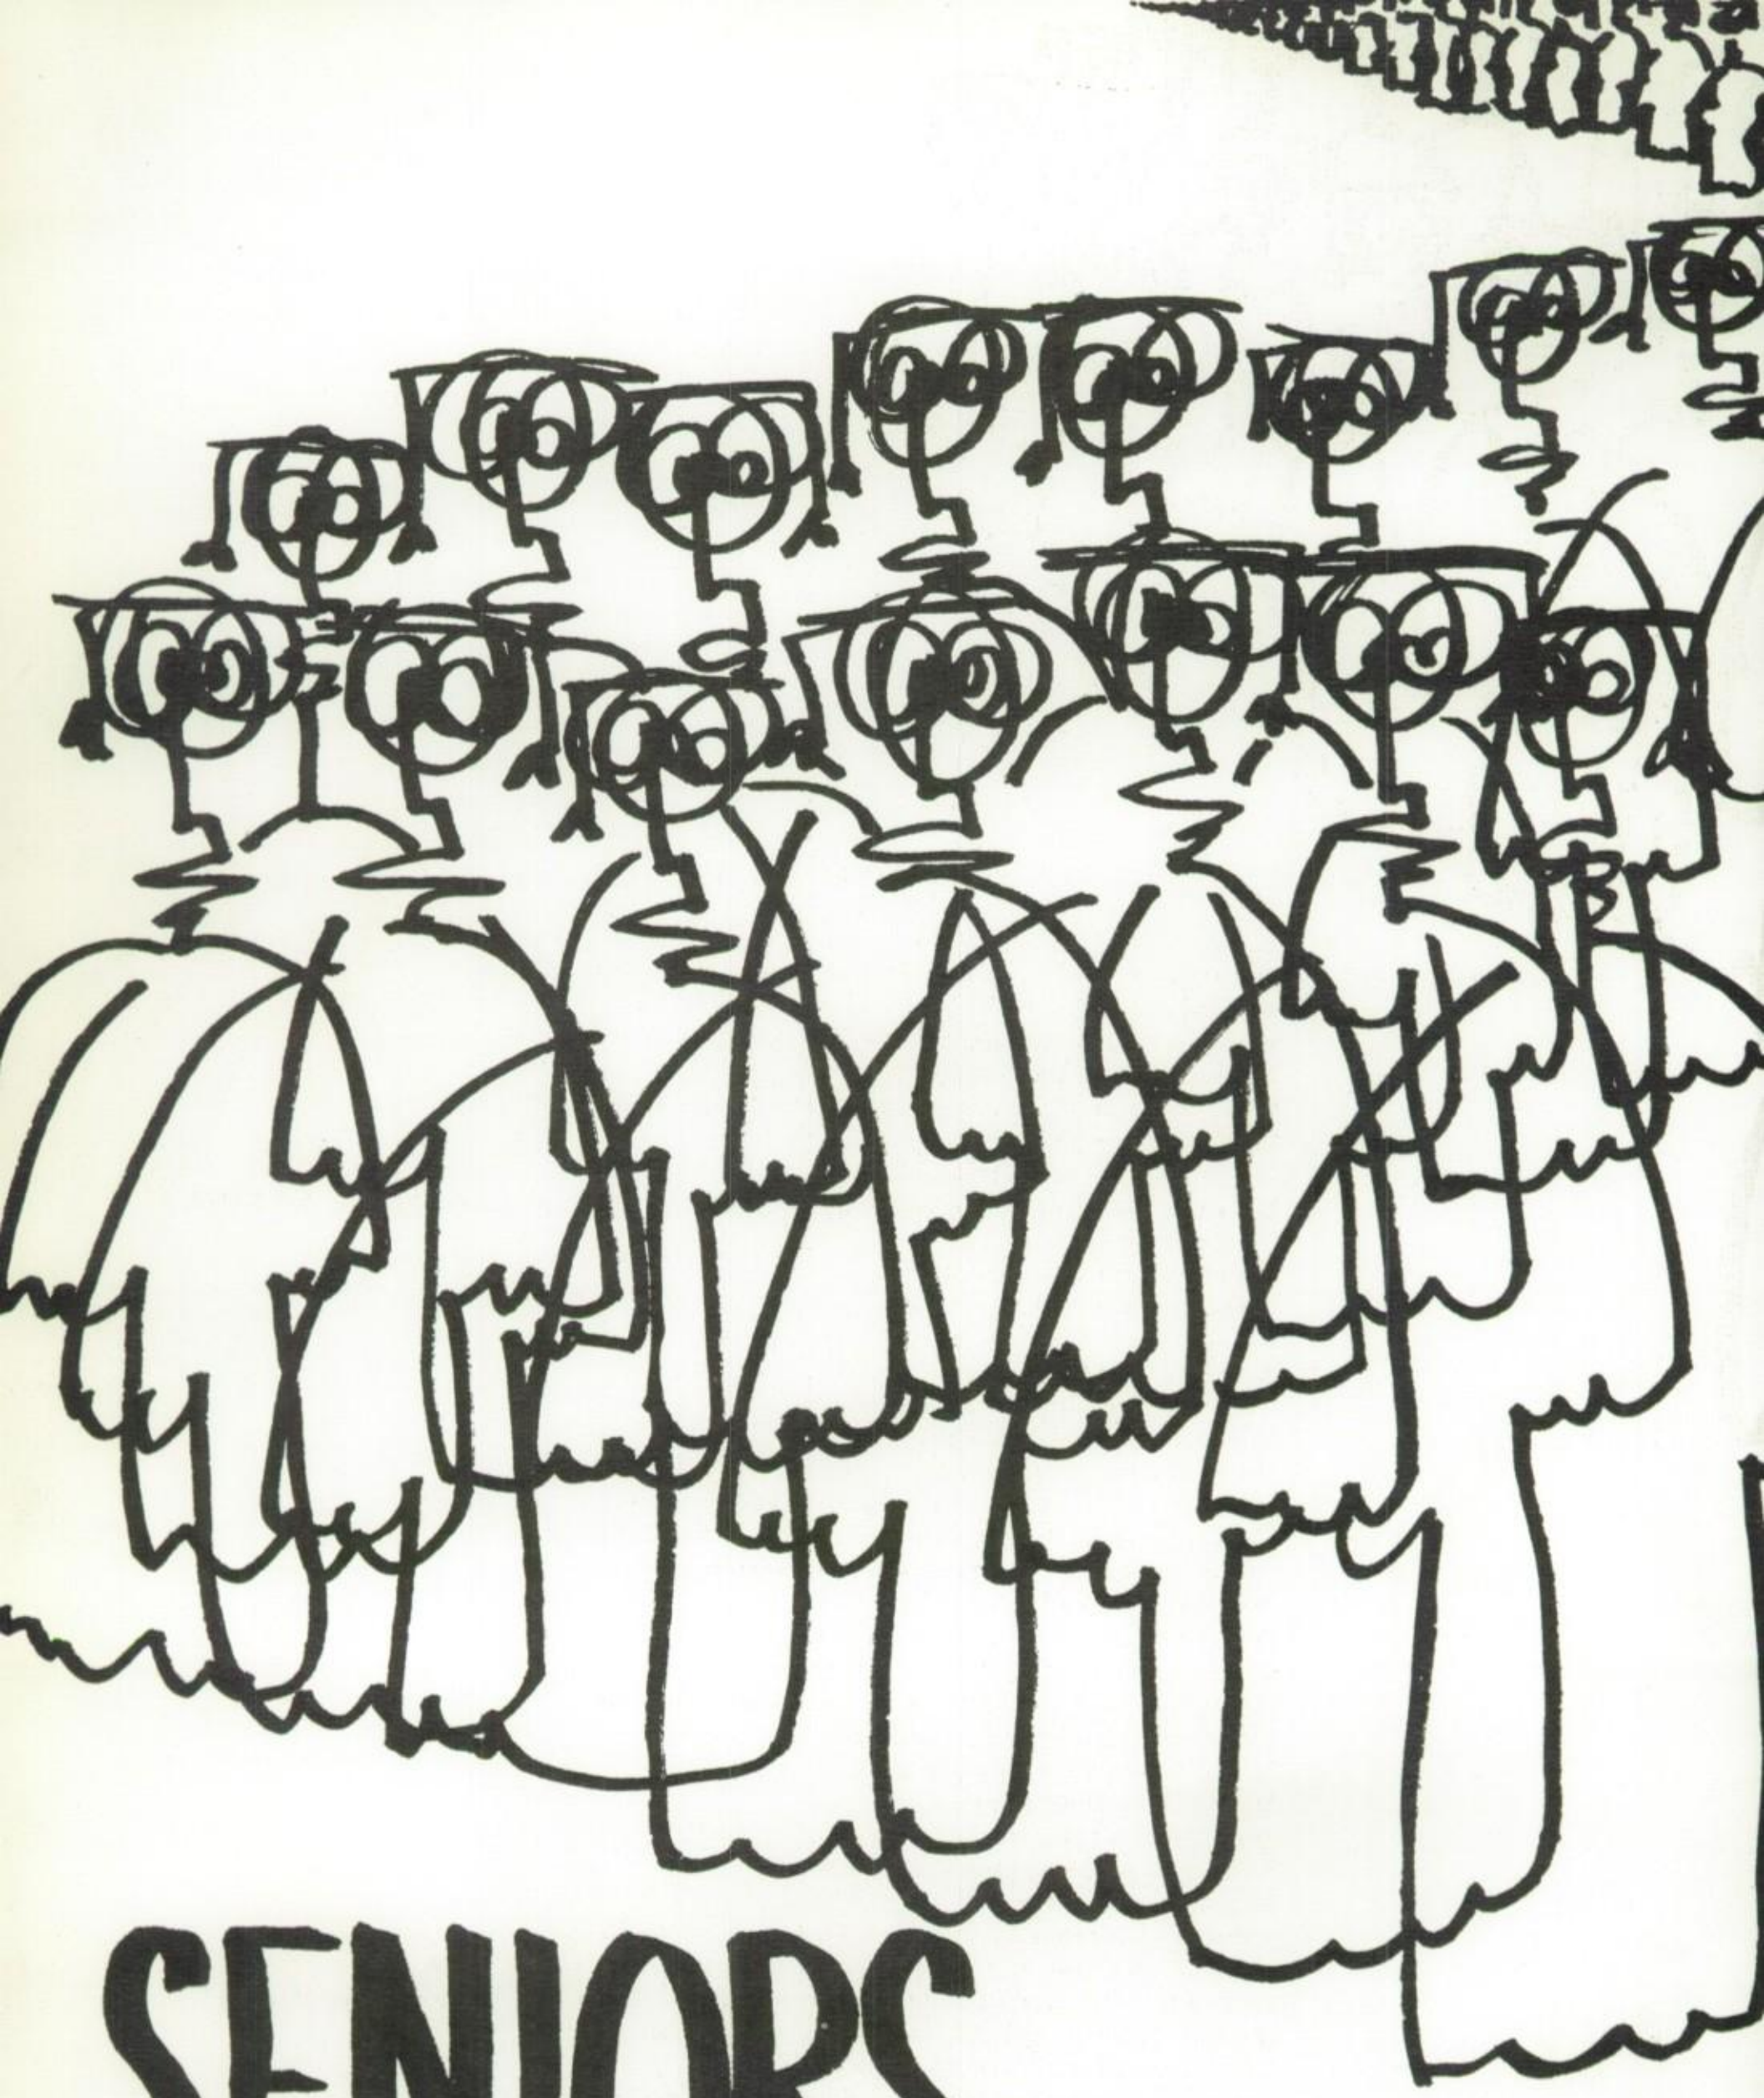
m.f.

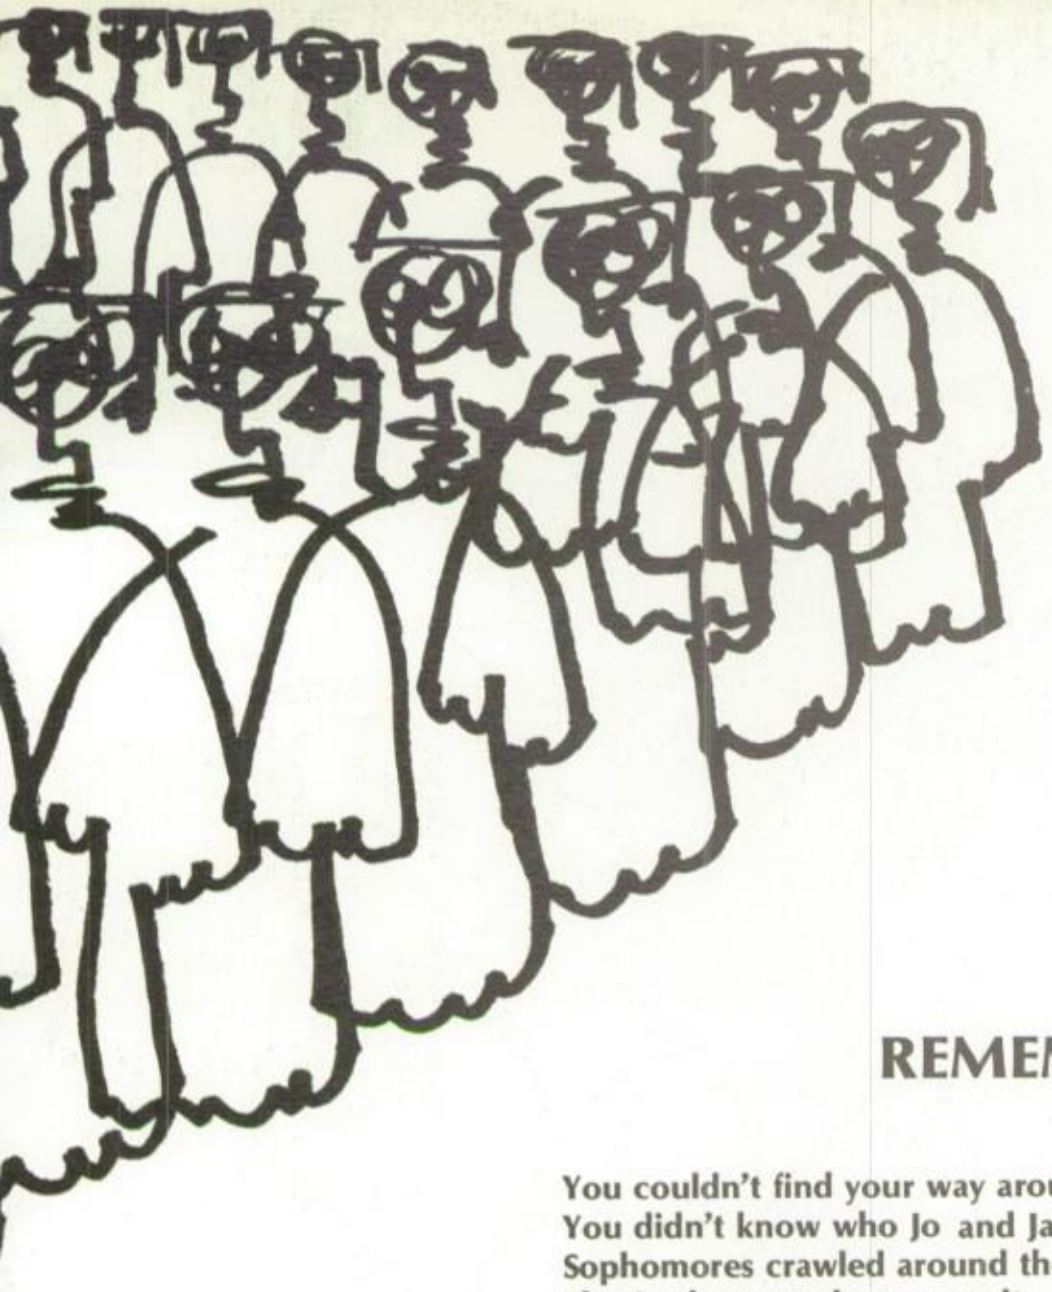


Life is a stream we must cross;
Intervals are merely its stepping stones.

g.a.p.



SENIORS



REMEMBER WHEN . . .

You couldn't find your way around in your first week at Battin.
You didn't know who Jo and Jake were.
Sophomores crawled around the floor pushing peanuts with their noses.
The Sophomore dance wasn't.
Mrs. Smith called your home when you "overslept".
Girls used to wear dresses.
The dress code was abolished.
We wore black armbands and held the Kent State Rally in the field across the street.
Dungaree bells invaded.
"George Washington Slept Here".
Jeff's Football team was number one.
We sold those inedible cakes.
We wore faded and worn dungarees with patches.
Gym was three times a week.
The 18 year olds got the vote.
The new stage drapes came.
The policemen carried students off to jail.
The first African Program was presented in the auditorium.
"Welcome to the Monkey House" was presented.
We were flying with the air force band.
We made our little journeys to Jo and Jake's.
We got caught on those little journeys!
"Our Night to Remember" was a night to remember.
Junior final exams were abolished.
Senior exams were brought back.
Mr. Parisi became principal.
The cafeteria got a new manager (to no avail).
Battin and Jeff newspapers combined.
Jeff's Basketball team was number one.
Women's liberation found its way into Battin's halls.
We were the only school open on what should have been a snow day.
Jo and Jake's catered the Senior Winter Formal, "The Court of the Crimson King".
Interscholastic Sports became a reality for Battin.
Mice scurried around in the portables.
You walked into your most dreaded class and found Jon Gold sitting there.
You wished every graduation was yours.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS & ADVISOR

So Long Battin High

to the tune of Simon & Garfunkel's
Frank Lloyd Wright

So long Battin High
We can't believe three years have passed so soon
And now it's nearly June
So soon, so soon.

We'll remember Battin High
All of the friends we've met since our first year
And now we shed a tear
A tear, a tear.

Principals may come and Principals may go We'll never change our point of view
When we leave here, we'll stop a while and think of you.

So long Battin High
Now it is time to end our farewell song
And so we say so long
So long, so long.

THE ICE PEOPLE

One day he reached up and Touched the stars.
They burned his hand.
They destroyed him.
And then they created him.

One day he tried to touch Someone.
To share the knowledge
Of the universe.
To teach them what they lack.
To share the purposes of living.

The ice-people ignored him.
Their frozen hearts
Were trapped in their cold bodies.
To teach ice about fire
Is like teaching the dead to live.

The ice-people fear fire
For it May melt their Frozen Walls Of Ignorance.

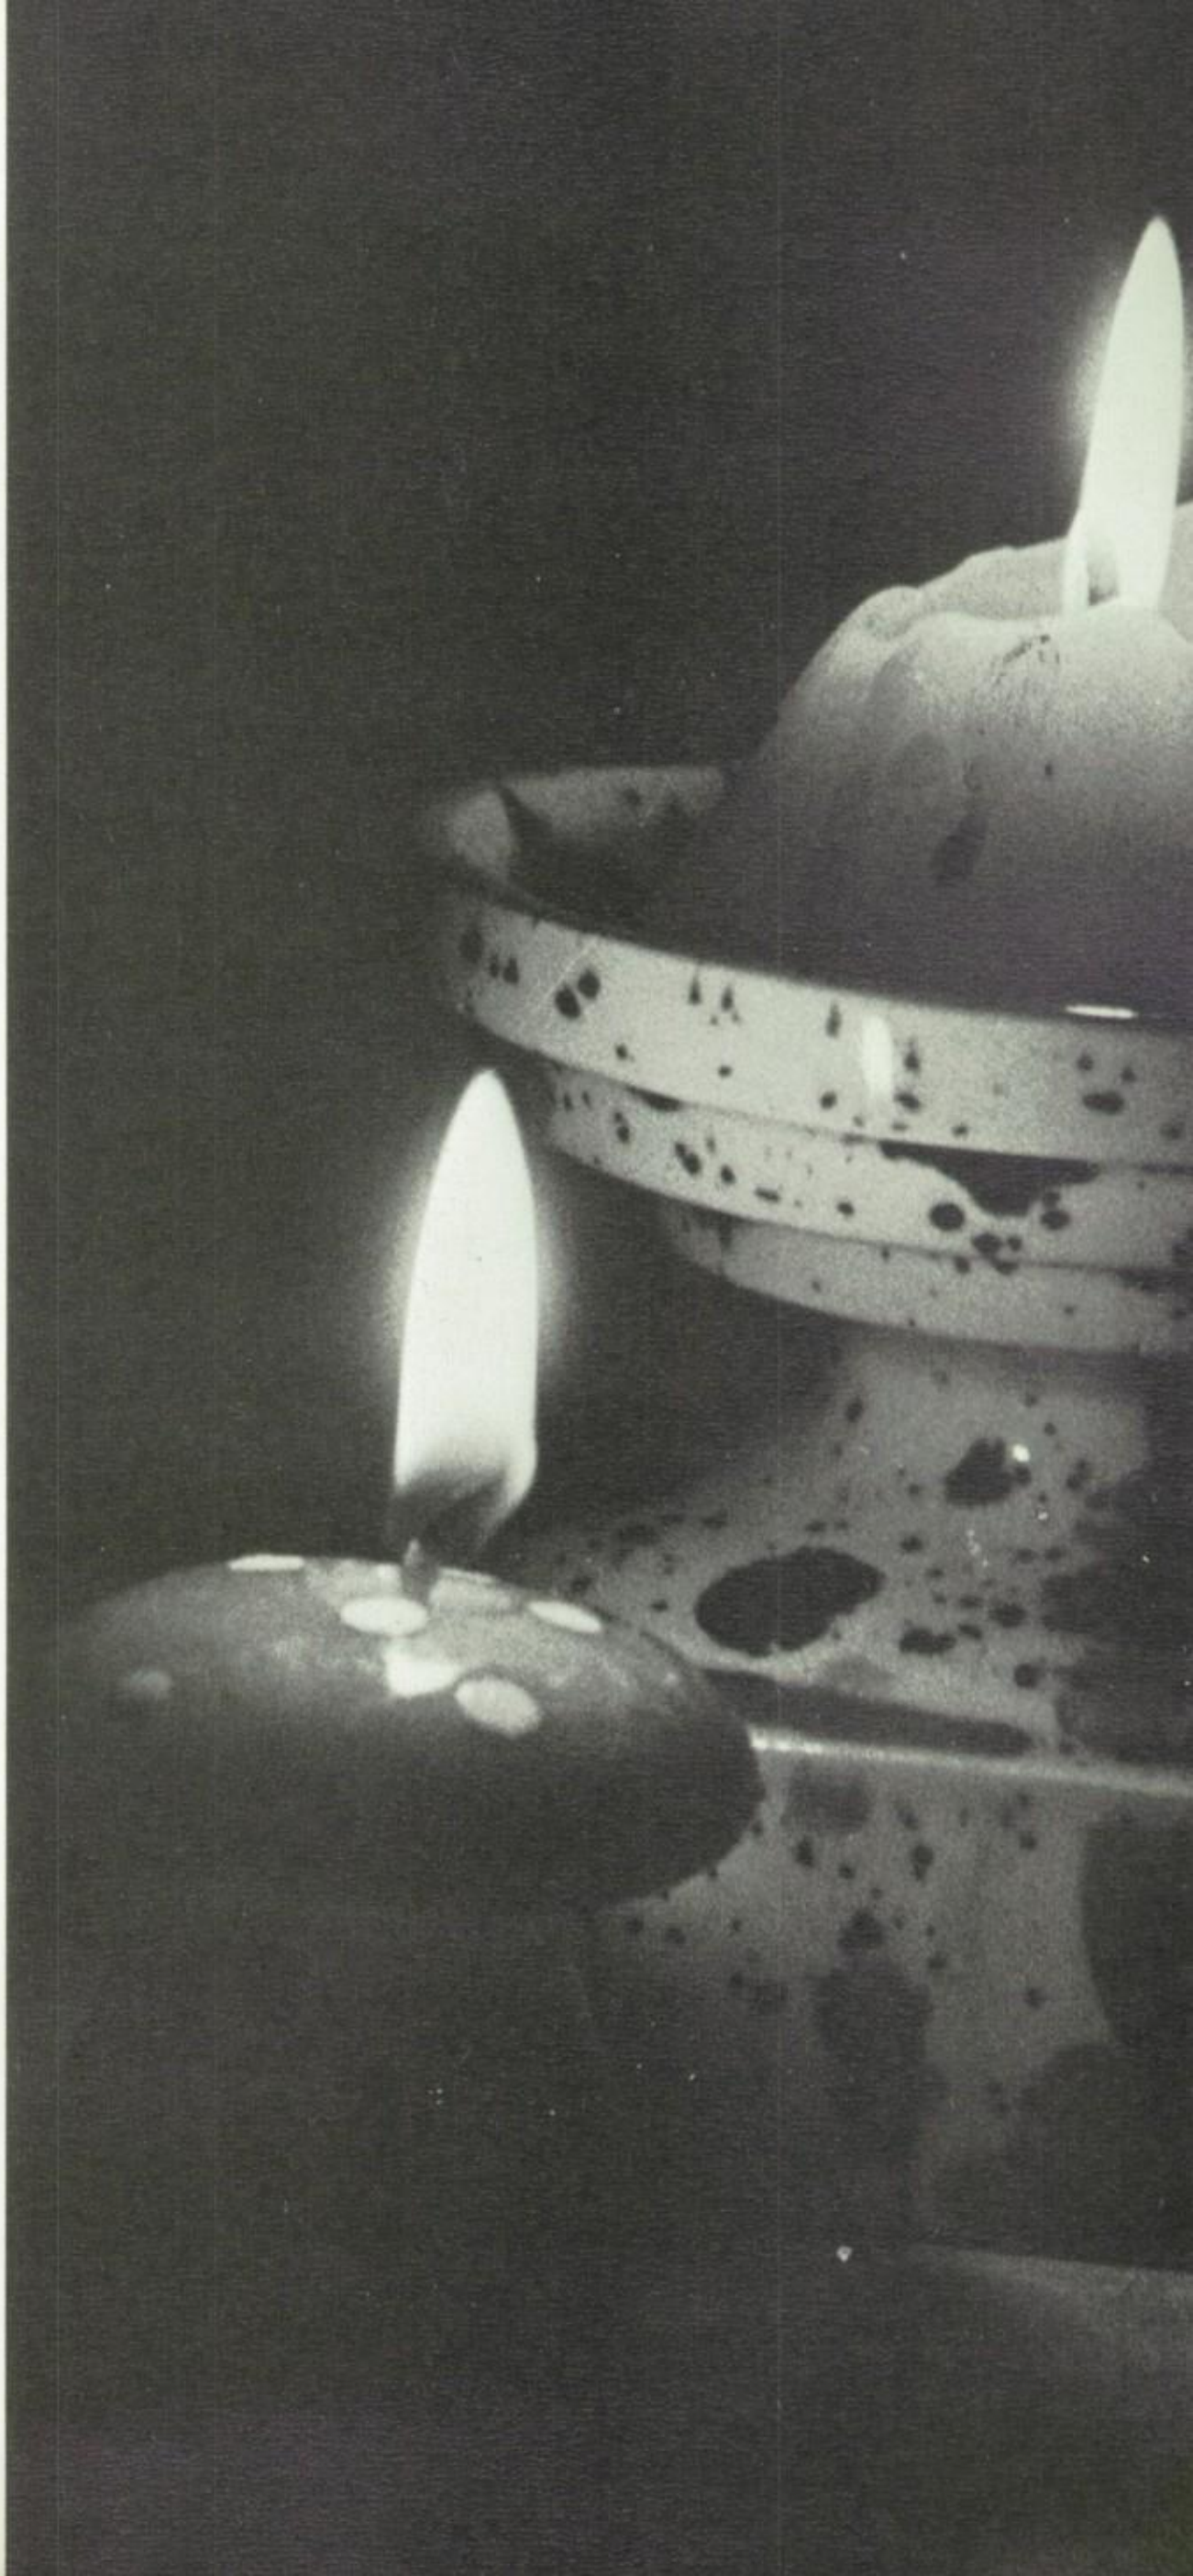
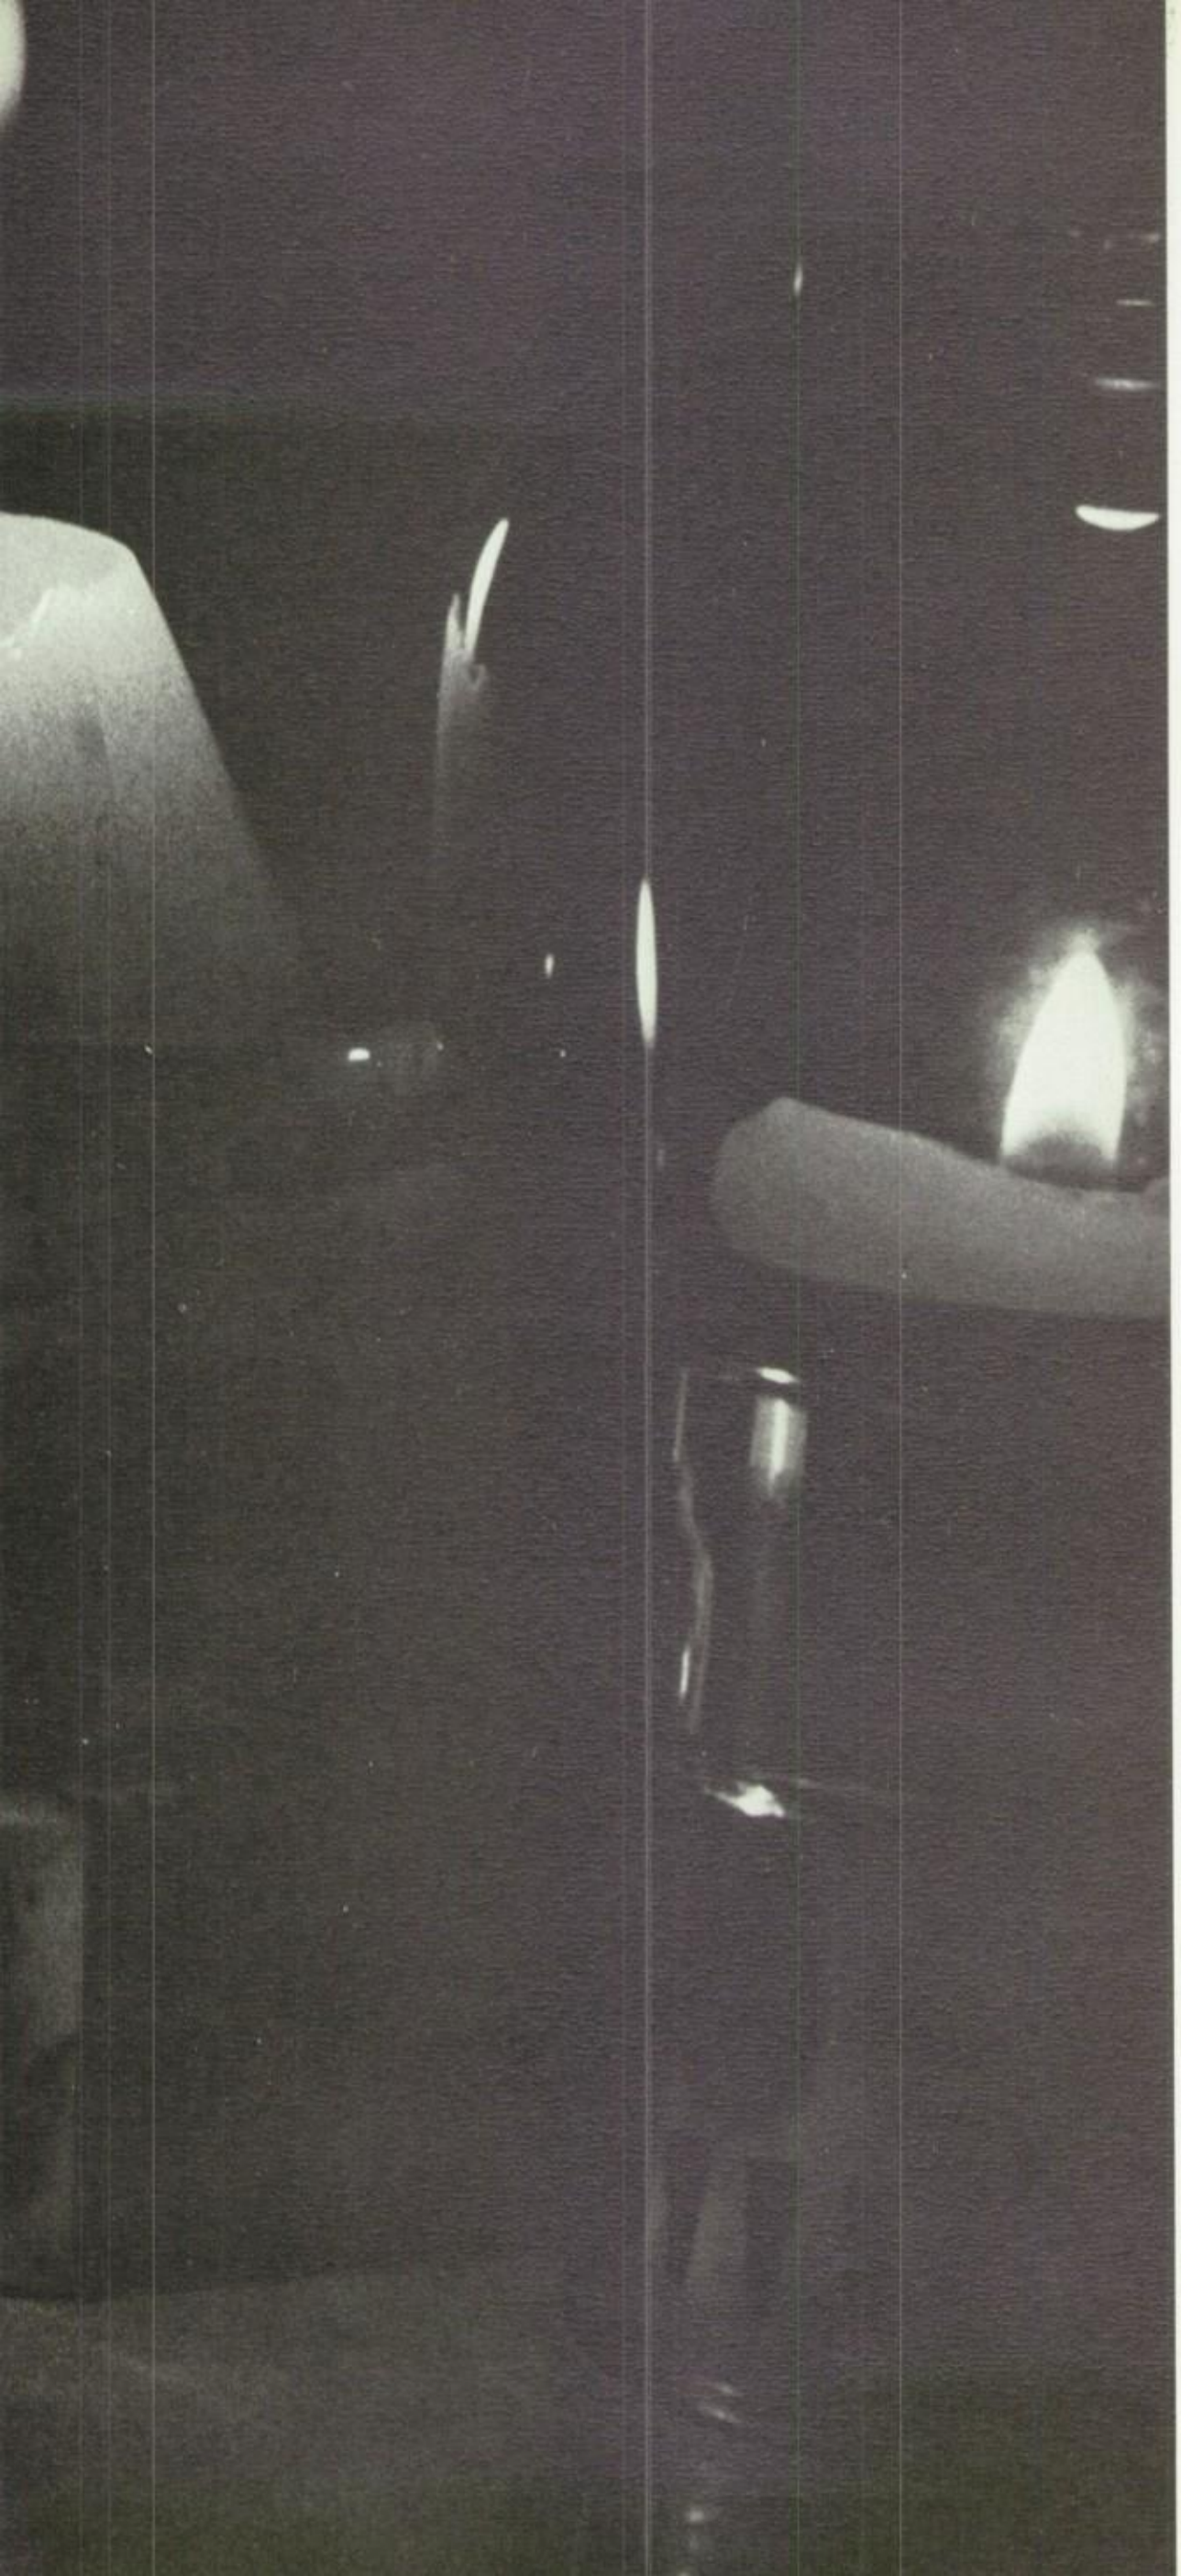
Merydith Mark





TIME II

In time all people who have molded you into the clay that you now are — fade.
They fade until they become nothing but an occasional glance backward into the past that you would never dare to enter and experience again.
In time
Old friends
melt into new friends.
Old lovers into blank faces and minds.
Old needs into new needs and no needs.
In time
all that once pained so much becomes a scar which can no longer be broken.
In time
all that once was — IS
and all that will be — ISN'T.

IN MEMORIAM

To LITA LATTIMORE
our classmate and friend

It is not growing like a tree
In bulk, doth make Man better be;
Or standing long an oak, three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald and sore;
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May,
Although it fall and die that night —
It was the plant and flower of Light.
In small proportions we just beauties see;
And in short measures life may perfect be.

Ben Jonson

FACULTY

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

THOMAS G. DUNN
MAYOR

ELIZABETH, NEW JERSEY

TO THE CLASS OF 1972:

The dominant theme of the entire span of your lives has been change! Yearly, sometimes even daily, old values have been challenged, modified, abandoned. It is your task to define your own values and goals, and it is not a task I envy. My generation was presented with more certainties than yours, and our lives were much simpler for it.

I cannot, of course, give you a set of values and goals which can fulfill your needs, but I can offer one piece of advice:

> IN YOUR SEARCH FOR A MEANINGFUL WAY OF LIFE, DO NOT ABANDON OLD VALUES JUST BECAUSE THEY ARE OLD. WEIGH YOUR STANDARDS CAREFULLY AND MAKE YOUR JUDGMENTS AS FREELY AS YOU POSSIBLY CAN . . . FREE FROM THE PREJUDICES YOU SO RIGHTLY CONDEMN . . . FREE FROM THE MISTAKEN ASSUMPTION THAT EVERYTHING MY GENERATION TOLD YOU IS FALSE.

Each of us must attempt to live our lives as people concerned about lasting meaning and not just our own problems. As Mayor of the City of Elizabeth, I have tried to make my own contributions in this regard, and I wish you every good fortune in reaching your own set of values and goals. It has become a cliche, but one which bears repeating - that "our youth represent our future". In moving toward that future, through all the changes and challenges that await you, may you be successful and fulfilled.

Sincerely,

Thomas G. Dunn

MAYOR

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1972

You have labored for three years in the vineyards of Battin, now you harvest the glowing fruits of your achievement. You will be long remembered by everyone for your lasting legacy of personal courage, profound faith and sincere dedication to new, inspiring ideals. I trust you are leaving Battin, enriched in mind, ready to meet the challenges and responsibility of the future.

My deepest and personal congratulations and best wishes to all of you who are very dear to my heart.

EXIT

and now as you smile at the strangeness of the past, think how much of that past is you.

e.h.

and the seasons they go round and round and the painted ponies go up and down.

we're captive on a carousel of time.

we can't return, we can only look behind from where we came.

and go round and round and round in the circle game.
